MICHAEL SCOTT

Michael Scott was the regional manager of Dunder Mifflin Paper Company for over 16 years. He was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania on March 15, 1964, which he would like to point out is the same birthday as Eva Longoria's. His years of success in management and comedy have given him the necessary experience to tell you how to do your job. Michael lives in Boulder, Colorado with his wife Holly, their two kids and their dog, Pamela Beagsley. This is his first book.

Rave Reviews for the Book

"I'm not even sure what this is..."

The New York Times

"When you become close with someone, you develop a kind of sixth sense. You can read their moods like a book. And right now, the title of Michael's book is.. "Something Weird Is Going On...colon...What Did Jan Say? The Michael Scott Story...by Michael Scott. With Dwight Schrute."

There are all types of managers: financial managers, McDonald's managers, Britney Spears' manager, paper company managers, moms, baseball managers... the list goes on. Not all those people are naturally good at their jobs. Some have to work really hard at it. Others write books about it. I'm Michael Scott and this is my manual, "Somehow I Manage." If you follow my guidelines, soon you'll be the world's second best manager (Sorry, I'll always be #1. I have a mug that proves it.)

CHAPTER 2: GUM

EVERYBODY LIKES THE GUY WHO OFFERS THEM A STICK OF GUM—

Gum Guy is nice, laid-back and cool. He's the type of manager who people want to hang out with after work and tell their life stories to. And you should tell them your whole life story too!

EXCERPTS FROM Somehow I Manage

"TREAT PEOPLE LIKE EQUALS AND ALWAYS MAKE THEM FEEL GOOD ABOUT THEMSELVES. IT WILL PAY OFF. FOR EXAMPLE, MY EX-FRIEND PACKER ONCE IMPLIED THAT MY EMPLOYEE PHYLLIS WASN'T HOT.

I COULDN'T HAVE THAT KIND OF NEGATIVITY FLOATING AROUND. SO I HUGGED PHYLLIS AND TOLD HER I WAS WORRIED ABOUT GETTING A BONER. IT MADE HER FEEL WONDERFUL. LATER ON THAT DAY SHE MADE TWO BIG SALES."
